Forward

The research for this volume of The DuPre' Trail has come to an end reluctantly. It was as exciting as that for Volume I; however, there are questions that remain unanswered. Most gratifying was the discovery of proofs that will correct an old lineage - that of Daniel Deupree of Oglethorpe County, Georgia - long perpetuated incorrectly.
The dominant purpose of this research was to find the immigrant ancestors’ records, as the sponsors are aware. Much work was done toward this in 1965 (see The DuPre Trail, Vol. I) by this researcher. Back to Virginia this took me to begin a page by page examination of early Isle of Wight and Henrico County records, as well as some others. As you will discern, this was not of significant success although several weeks were used for this effort.

It seemed for a time that this researcher would have very little to report. On account of the failure of the above; however, by resorting to all available indices of many county records, much pertinent DuPreana was obtained. To this were added Pitt County, N. C., and some Tennessee records from the files of Mrs. Martin Ellison, Coral Gables, Fla., and Mrs. John S. Litchfield Fort Lee, Va., for which we are grateful and extend our thanks. Thanks also are extended to Miriam Pritchard Skelton (Mrs. Clarence Cunningham Skelton), Atlanta, Ga., for a portion of the Putnam and Oglethorpe County records; to Mary W. DuPree (Mrs. Henry Gibson DuPree), Jacksonville, Fla., for the U. S. Treasury Loan Records, 1779, and for various miscellaneous items; to Grace DeuPree (Mrs. Charles Lamar DeuPree), Dallas, Texas, and to Dr. Allen Dupree King, Wilmington, Del., for items credited to them in the text. We are grateful to each of these for their contributions.

In grateful appreciation I extend thanks to the many public officials in county courthouses, libraries, and the State Archives in Atlanta, Ga., Columbia, S. C., and Richmond, Va. All were most gracious in giving their assistance when needed.

My thanks to each of the sponsors of this research for making it possible. It is regretted that more could not be accomplished in the time allotted, but I hope you will find herein something useful to you in your own research.

An effort was made to avoid errors; however, they have a way of creeping in! It is to be hoped that you will forgive my imperfections.

VIRGINIA

The Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, San Marine, California, 96028, has the original King William Parish Register (Henrico County, Va.) under File Classification BR 139. A & B, according to Mr. Beverly Fleet who compiled many of the "Virginia Colonial Abstracts". He stated that a photostatic copy of this Register had been sent to the Virginia State Library. Upon inquiry at the Library and the Archives, the information was that this evidently was in error, as they had no record of having received it. It was thought that an examination of the original or photostatic copy might reveal information on the early DuPre family that presently does not show in the copies available in print (Brook, Va. Hist. Mag., etc.). It is recognized that old manuscript documents are very difficult to read. King William Parish served the French Protestant refugees who settled at Manakintowne, and the records, therefore, are of considerable importance in any research of this group.

Also at the Huntington Library are documents and correspondence of the LIPSCOMBE Family (1770-1883) under File BR - Bares 28.29.

Below appear a few items from R. A. Brock's list of "Documents, Chiefly Unpublished (1936)," in Vol. 5 of the Collections of the Virginia Historical Society, obtained by him from the King William Parish Register:
p. 78 - The 21st Feb. 1721, was b. Jean Gil (mer)... of Jean Gasper (Gil)mer & of Susanne, his wife, was baptz. by Mr. Fontaine. He was presented for baptism by Daniel Maubain & Nicolas Soullee, ... Mary Dupree, wife of Jean Dupree. the parties have declared that this child was b. the day & year above. J. Soblet, Clerk.

p. 85.- 15 Mch 1730/31. was b. a black boy named Jame to Jan Dupre.
p. 83. - 13 Dec 1729, w. b. to Jean Dupre, a black boy named Pierre.
p. 87 - 28 Dec 1732 was b. to Jean Dupre an black named Pierre.
p. 98 - The 7th Dec. 1739, was b. Elizabeth Forqueran, dau. of Moyse Forqueran & of Susane, his wife; was baptd by Mr. Gavain; had for g-father, Jean Chastain; for g-mother, Magdalaine Gueran & Moyse Forqueran.
p. 99 - 12 9ber 1739. eras b. Laraus Bryers, s. of Edward Bryers & of Sara, his wife. Had for g-father - Mattieu Bingly & Rene Chastain; for g-mother Janne Dupre.
p. 97 - 23rd 8ber 1738 was b. Jean Roberd, s. of Jean Roberd S. of Janne, his wife; had for g-fathers, Moyse & Pierre Forqueran; for godmother, Janne Dupre.

Comment: One of the early French Huguenots at Manakintowne was JEAN FORQUERAN. He perhaps was the first husband of Janne Dupre, who after his death married Jean Dupre (Jean Dupre d. 1734/5 - See Vol. I, p. 2, DuPre Trail).

According to the following, Peter Forqueran was the son of Janne (Jane) Dupre. Virginia Colonial Abstracts Vol. 21 - HENRICO COUNTY - SOUTHSIDE (1736) By Beverly Fleet

(Comment: the list of names was not given).

Artcher & Robert Eseley, tract of 1,500 acres of land on Fine Creek, Henrico Co. - uppr Branch of Sountain Creek, down that Branch at a fine Fall for a mile 12 July 1718. (Comment: This would be Robert Easley, Jr., as Sr. had died in 1711 - see DuPre Trail, Vol. I, p. 3).

This Patent gave the names of 18 persons brought into the Colony by the above named however, none appeared to be of interest to this

!!!"Memoirs of a Huguenot Family" (Translated and compiled scan the original autobiography of the Rev. James Fontaine, the father of the Fontaines who came to America - by Ann Maury 1853). This book was studied carefully for mention of any of the DuPre family; however, none was found. In fact few were mentioned other than family. It seems that John Fontaine was the first to come to Virginia, arriving an the ship "The Dove", May 28, 1715.

There was a drawing of a map at the head of a letter written from "Lunenburg Va. 9 July 1752", by Peter Fontaine, Jun. of Rock Castle, Hanover Co., Va., showing the location of Christiana Fort "now deserted" in Brunswick Co., in the far western part of the county on the Meherrin River.

HENRICO COUNTY - Order Book 1719-1724.

This book shows that the Will of JOHN FORQUERAN was probated in 1720 and Inventory of the Estate filed. In 1721 the Estate account was filed. The Will book for this period is missing.

NEW KENT COUNTY -

The few items extant far this county were examined. These included some miscellaneous Deeds among manuscript papers; however, there was only one dated prior to 1800. Negative.

WARWICK COUNTY -
All extant records were examined - negative. These were miscellaneous court papers far the year 1665 and for the years 1701-17 26

MIDDLESEX COUNTY -

Deeds, Wills, Etc. 1695-1699, Bk. 9, p. 55 M/f Reel 2):

Comment: Note the wife's name was shown as "Rebecca Smith". It was Rebecca Smith who m. Abraham Depree (above). The Orders may have been incorrectly recorded as "Elizabeth".

Deed Book 9, p. 81, 1696. July 27. Brookes, Peter

Whereas it has been made appear before me by Peter Brookes that Abra Depree Standeth indebted to him by bill in ye sum of 1100 lbs of tobo. & hath absented himself out of the County whereby ye ordinary way of proceeding agst him for recovery of said debt shall and therefore in his Mas (Majesty's) name to wit require you to attach So much of the tobo of ye sd Depree where it may be found in this County as will Satisfie ye sd debt with.... that you make and return of the precept with your proceeding therein to ye next Court held for this County, hereof faile not given under my hand this 27th of July 1696.

By virtue of the above precept I attacht a gray Horse belonging to ye said Depree likewise all his tools that is in ye hands (of) George Turner also What money .....Knot with him.

Orders 1695-1699, p. 36. 11 Nov. 1696. Brookes' suit against Depree dismissed for want of prosecution.

Comment: Embrey's Index of Old Rappahannock County records to 1692 and Essex Co. records, 1692-1700, were thoroughly checked for further mention of a Depree; however, none was found. - It was noted that in 1699 George Turner sued Jacob Devilliard on some matter, the suit being dismissed.

This confirms that there were other French there prior to 1700.

JAMES CITY COUNTY -

Unfortunately no records are extant for this county. In 1957 the Rev. Lindsay O. Duvall compiled what records he could muster for The period 1634 - 1904, and published them in Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Series 2, Vol. 4. A search of these records was negative for DuPre. James City included the town only. James City Island included all the Island outside the city.

Also same Patent book, p. 261r: 16 Apr 1683, to Edward Ellerby 100 acres in James City County, from the James River along Mr. Powell's line of marked trees, north and eastwardly. Part of Patent of 600 acres granted Wm Haveat (?) 20 Oct 1661, who by last will & testament 25 Aug 1666 did bequest part to Wm Strong who on 8 Oct 167'T by Deed conveyed the 100 acres, part of the 600 acres, to Stephen Butts. That part of James City County west of the Chickahominy River was annexed to Charles City County in 1720. Surry County was formed from James City County in 1652. A study of the formation of the counties comprising the Commonwealth of Virginia would be very useful when genealogical research is undertaken.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA

Deed 9k. 1 (1688-1704), p. 280. The name of Abraham Tooke was found on a Deed here dated 9 Oct. 1697/8. During the years covered by this Deed book, other names familiar in connection with the Dupree family appear, viz: Benjamin Chapman, Sullivant, Williamson, Bateman, Green, Bagnall, Hogin,

One researcher of the DuPre family has stated that Rebecca Bagnall married into the family; however, this fact as yet has not been established. One Robert Bagnall and wife, Rebecca, of Nansemond County sold tobacco to John Long of Newport parish, 5 Sept. 1711, (Deed Bk. 2 (1704-1715), p. 198).

Comment: Isle Wight County records are said to be complete from 1636; however, they are in no "easy" research order. Wills, Deeds, and Orders are mixed in the same volumes, and while a volume may be marked to include (for instance) records from 1662 to 1715 there might be several years' records missing entirely. They of course may be found in another volume. Due to the fact that Louis Dupre and Lurana Dupre were known to have been in Isle of Wight Co. in 1720 (see elsewhere above), several volumes were checked page by page. The indices of the following volumes were checked:

Witnesses: Neavill Buchannan Robert Miles Stephen x Wiles (LS)

Comment: The thought occurs that JOSEPH DUPREE might have married a daughter of Stephen Wiles, else why did he bequeath this land to Joseph Dupree, rather than his old friend, Joseph's brother Lewis? Further research needed here.

Comment: Note that Mary was not listed in the above accounting. She was either dead, married, or was of legal age.

p. 56. Banister Dupree in Account with Nathaniel Dacus his Guardian - Admitted to record, 8 Sept. 1796.

Comment: This appears to be the last accounting made by the Guardian. Guardians' Accounts through 1810 were checked. - The THOMAS DUPREE, dec'd, to whom the above records refer was not the Thomas Dupree who died in this (Lunenburg) County in 1786 (Will abstract, DuPre Trail, Vol. I, p. 7). It appears from a study of the records that the Thomas Dupree mentioned in the records above was a son of LEWIS DUPREE, who was a son of Thomas of Lunenburg Co. Thomas who left the orphans Mary, Susannah A, and Banister, died in Charlotte Co., Va. Inventory and Appraisal of his Estate was filed in that county Oct. 23, 1782. (See under Charlotte Co. herein).It is not known by this researcher what, if any, relationship there was between this Thomas Dupree, dec'd, and Nathaniel and Thomas Dacus. We find the Dupree and Dacus families still closely associated in the early 1800's in Laurens Co., South Carolina. (See Will of Henry Atkinson later). "Bannister DuPree's, age 50-60, appears on the 1830 Census for Pickens Dist., S. C. (See later).

Comment: On page 106 of Deed Book 24, there is a Deed recorded dated 16 Dec. 1815, wherein the Grantors, Edmund Dupree and Elizabeth his wife of Lunenburg Co., sell 522 acres of land in the same county to Coleman Jeffreys. The location of this land was at the junction of Swift Creek and Spring Branch to a point in the fence in Jno Dupuy's line.
Although the Index gives the spelling of Edmund's name as "Dupree", the recorded Deed shows that both he and Elizabeth signed their names as "Dupuy:. Dupuy apparently is correct.

It is suggested that Vol. I of The DuPre Trail be consulted for additional abstracts of Lunenburg Co. records.

Comment: Here is proof that Lewis Deupree of Lunenburg and Mecklenburg Counties was the father of Daniel Deupree. This was the Daniel who married Sally Ellington, Lunenburg Co. There will be other records herein to substantiate this. Arthur, named as a son, was his step-son and the son of Median Atkinson, Lewis Deupree's wife, by her former husband. (See witnesses to Deed on p. 16). The following year, 1788, Daniel paid Land Tax in Lunenburg.

Sir

Enclosed I send you the application of Nancy Dupree for Bounty Land.
Be kind enough to examine the same at your earliest convenience and

Yours very respectfully
Jas. Gardner

To George W. Whiting Esq.
Commissioner of Pensions
Washington City

State of Kentucky: County of Henderson to wit.
On this 3rd day of August 1857, personally appeared before me, a justice of the peace, within and for the County and State aforesaid, Nancy Dupree, aged 81 years a resident of the County of Hopkins in the State of Kentucky who being duly sworn according to law, declares that she is the Widow of William Dupree, deceased, late of Charlotte County in the State of Virginia, who was a private in the Militia Service of Virginia in the War of the Revolution. She declares that she has no personal knowledge of the services of her late husband in the Revolutionary War. She has often heard her late husband in his lifetime say, and also others that he was called into the service of his country on two separate, Emergency; That he was engaged in the Battle at Guildford Court house, that his term of actual service was about six weeks in all; that he suffered many hardships and privation all of which she honestly believes to be true. She knows of no living testimony by which she can establish the services rendered by her deceased husband in the War of the Revolution, having all died out. She therefore respectfully refers to the army record of the period in support of her claim, which she respectfully submits to the department.

She further states that she was married to the said Wm. Dupree in Charlotte County in the state of Virginia on the (blank) day of December A. D. 1833 by one Silas Shelburn a preacher of the Gospel and that her name before her said marriage was Nancy Bailey that her said husband died in Charlotte County, in the State of Virginia on the 16th day of June A. D. 1854 and that she is still a widow. She makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the bounty land to which she may be entitled under the Act approved March 3rd 1855, and the amendatory Act of May 14th 1856. And she further declares that she has not received or applied for bounty land under this or any other Act of Congress except as above mentioned.

Attest Nancy x Deupree (.).

Comment: The foregoing was a "rejected" claim; however, the reasons were not given. Several correspondents give the year of his birth as 1759; he therefore would have been of a suitable age to have seen some military service during the Revolutionary War. It is possible that his wife did not give adequate details of his service, making it impossible for the Pension Office to identify.

The reader will identify Nancy Bailey Dupree as William's second wife. His first wife was Amey Pettus. (Deed signed by William and Amy, p. 22; also, Will of John Pettus, Sr., p.

COMMENT:

It is obvious from the court records that the Dupree, DeuPree families of Lunenburg, Charlotte, Mecklenburg, and Halifax Counties are closely related, all being descendants of THOMAS and wife, SUSANNAH, of Lunenburg. The inference also is clear that this THOMAS was the son of THOMAS who died ca 1725 Henrico County and his wife, Margaret Easley Dupray. (See Vol. I, Dupre Trail).

THOMAS and SUSANNAH DEUPREE had the following children:

1. Lewis Deupree, m. 1) Amy Willingham; 2) Median Atkinson.
3. Elizabeth, m. Thomas Whitlock
4. Margaret, m. David Stokes, Sr.
5. Mary, m. William Brizendine.
(For proofs, consult Vols. I and II, The DuPre Trail).

LEWIS and AMY (WILLINGHAM DEUPREE had:

1. Drury Deupree, m. Ann Atkinson (dau. of Median above).
2. Daniel Deupree, m. Sally Ellington.
3. Lewis Jr.
5. Ann Deupree, m. Daniel Weatherford
6. Thomas (d. Charlotte Co. 1782 may have been a son).

Lewis and Amy Deupree may have had other children, and it is believed that JOHN DUPREE who shows up on Mecklenburg Co. Personal Property Tax Lists may have been his son and Amy's. This probably was the John Dupree who married Nancy Short of Mecklenburg Co. (Vol. I and Vol. II, The DuPre Trail).

JOSEPH DEUPREE and his wife (name unproved) had:

1. William Deupree, m. 1) Amey Pettus, 2) Nancy Bailey (widow).
(There may have been others, deceased, and not named in Will).

The children of the daughters of THOMAS and SUSANNAH DEUPREE, Elizabeth, Margaret, and Mary are mentioned in the Will of Thomas Dupree. (Vol. 1).

Drury and Daniel Deupree, sons of Lewis and Amy, and perhaps Lewis and his second wife, Median (Atkinson), moved on to Laurens Co., S. C. about 1795. A Lewis Dupree died there in 1799, and Drury was appointed administrator of his Estate. By that time, Daniel had removed to Oglethorpe Co., Ga.; he reared a large family, and died there in 1848. (See later). - A study of the records and other information in Vols. I and II, The DuPre Trail, will confirm that this DANIEL DEUPREE, who died in Oglethorpe Co: Ga., was not the son of Lewis DuPre who died in Little River, S. C., and was of Brunswick Co., N. C., as erroneously claimed by various persons through the past years. Some lineages have been built on this premise, but they no longer should be perpetuated. Apparently no proof has ever been offered in support of the claim that LEWIS DUPRE of Brunswick Co., N. C., had any children, although it is likely that he did. This researcher attempted to prove or disprove the assumption that he had children, but to no avail; neither could his wife's name be learned.

It is suggested that the reader follow through on the above to Laurens Co., S. C., and Oglethorpe Co., Ga., records herein.

Marriage Notices from The Family Visitor, Apr. 6, 1822 - Apr. 3, 1824.

(Married in Richmond) Capt. Isham G. Lundy, to Miss Eliza A. Dupree, both of Greenville (sic) Co, - September 13, 1823.

The Virginia Magazine of History & Biography, Vol, 65 (1957), p. 134, gives the following as AMENDMENTS TO RELIQUES OF THE RIVES, by J. Rives Childs:

"Hannah Rives, widow of Simon Rives, married 2nd Lewis Dupree. In her will dated 1806 and probated in 1816, Lexington Dist.,
S. C. she mentions her son Simon Rives and her grand-children Lewis Dupree, Jessie, Timothy, and Mary Ann. These last were presumably the children of Reed and Mary (Rives) Dupree.

This researcher questions the accuracy of the statement that Hannah Rives married 2nd Lewis Dupree. Hannah Rives (not Dupree) made a Deed of Gift, 12 Oct, 1816 (not 1806), in Lexington District, S. C., which was proved 20 May 1817, No Will was found, The Dupree children mentioned in the Deed of Gift were indeed Hannah's grandchildren, as they were the children of Reed Dupree, son of Lewis Dupree, and Reed's wife, Mary (Rives) Dupree, Hannah Rives' daughter by her deceased husband, Simon Rives. Incidentally, another daughter of Reed and Mary (Rives) Dupree also was mentioned in the Deed of Gift, namely, Priscilla Mathis, and her husband, Dr, John Mathis. (See Vol, I, The DuPre Trail), Hannah's daughter, Mary, also was mentioned as Mary Stewart, wife of Nathaniel W. Stewart. Mary had married the latter after Reed Dupree's death ca 1805 in Washington Co., Ga.

The Deed records herein and in Vol. I, also the Personal Property and Land Tax Lists herein for Greensville Co., show that the only Lewis Dupree Mr. Childs possibly could have referred to either sold his land, with the exception of 39 and 24 acre tracts, or devised the remainder by Deed of Gift to his son, James Dupree, together with all household equipment, farm stock and equipment, his "Great Bible", and a number of Negroes, in 1793. Other Negroes were devised to other of his sons and daughters and to one grandchild in 1795. His name appeared on the Land Tax lists with the two tracts of 39 and 24 acres each for the last time in 1798. The Personal Property Tax List for 1795 shows Lewis Dupree as the "taxpayer" and with James Dupree, above age 21, living in the household. For the years 1796, 1797, and 1798, this situation was reversed, and James was shown as the taxpayer with Lewis, above age 21, in the household. After 1798 only James is listed for Personal Property Tax, and through 1802. The Land Tax Lists do not show James as paying taxes on his father's 39 and 24 acres. More study needs to be done on this in an effort to learn what disposition was made of Lewis's acreage. - This researcher believes he died 1798 or 1799.

Hannah Rives sold her 335 acres of land in 1793 to Joshua Mayes. The previous year she was shown paying Personal Property Tax, with her son, Thomas Rives, above 21, in her household. It is presumed that she moved on to South Carolina about the time she sold her land in 1793.

*(See records of Northampton Co., N. C., for adequate proof that Lewis Dupree was deceased before 23 Oct. 1804).

Certain Bank Notes issued by the Continental Congress during the Revolution were recalled in 1779 due to the great increase in number in circulation through counterfitting by unscrupulous persons. Those holding issues of May 20, 1777 and April 11, 1778, were requested to bring them to the Virginia Continental Loan Office by June 1779. The time later was extended to Dec. 31, 1779. A list was made of those who turned in their Bank Notes, their place of abode, date, and the amount, is now in the National Archives in one of the books of the old loan records of the Treasury Department. The book is entitled, "Register of Bills, Va. Continental Loan Office" and is numbered 1077. The list includes the following names:

The Will of Robert Easley was given in abstract on p. 3 of Vol. I of The DuPre Trail. The entire Will is given below for those of you who have a particular interest in this man:

In the name of God, amen, I, Robert Easley of the parish and county of Henrico, being weak of body but of perfect mind and memory, praise be to God, do make and ordain my last will and testament in manner and form following: First I recommend my soul to God that gave it, hoping through the mercies of Jesus Christ to receive free pardon and forgiveness of all my sins, and as for my temporal estate I dispose of it as follows:

Item. I give and bequeath to my son John Easley and to my son Warham Easley and to my daughter Margaret Dupray, wife of Thomas Dupray, 500 acres of land lying upon Fine Creek to be divided among them and their heirs forever, but in case any of them die before age and without issue, then to return to the survivor or survivors.

Item. I give and bequeath to my three younger children, Elizabeth Easley, William Easley, and my youngest son Robert Easley, 400 acres of land lying between Fine Creek and Mannakin upper creek, to them and to their heirs forever, two of which said lots to be upon Fine Creek and the other upon Mannakin Creek, but in case any of them die before they come of age and without issue, then to return to the survivor or survivors.

Item. : I give and bequeath to my loving wife Ann Esely all movables, good and chattels whatsoever, and make her whole executrix of this my last will and testament, and I do hereby make void all former wills by me heretofore made.

Witness my hand and seal this 17th day of December Anno Domini 1710.
Witnesses: Robert Esely (Seal)
Philip Martin, Jno. Green Proved March Court 1711.

Vol. 2, p. 17 - Daniel Guerrant and wife, Marie, were settlers at Manakin (Va.) ca 1699, having come from Saintogne, France.

p. 24 - The Huguenots endured all the vicissitudes of a new colony; however, they did not abandon the nicer amenities of life. They did not forget that they came from the "most polished country in the world".

Vol. 3, p. 35 - A number of Huguenot families, including the Blanchard family, went to Newberne, N. C., from Virginia, and later on to South Carolina "living across the Santee".

Vol. 6, p. 66 - Dr. H. n. McIlwaine, former Librarian of the Virginia State Library, stated that the term "Huguenots" was never used in the official records of the State, nor did the French Protestant refugees call themselves Huguenots. They considered it a term of reproach applied to them by their enemies. It first came into use about 1560, but its origin is not known. The term afterwards was accepted by them because of its convenience, and also because of the heroism shown in the persecution by many called Huguenots.

Most of the French refugees who came to Virginia ca 1700 settled at Manakin The first ship to arrive was the "Mary and Ann the second, the "Peter and Anthony". The third ship came about the 20th of October 1700; however, the name of the ship nor the number of passengers was recorded. Only a few of these passengers went to Manakintowne, and nearly all others dispersed into various parts of the Colony. The fourth ship under Capt. Tragian arrived March 5, 1701, having sailed from Blackwall Dec, 8, 1700.
A member of the French Academy stated after reading the excellent book, "The Defender of the Sovereignty of the People", concerning the Huguenots, "what great ancestors were those Huguenots!". Another called them "the salt of France ".

The greater part of the Huguenots came to America from La Rochelle.

The Manakin Church is now in Powhatan County (Va.)

Vol. 7, P. 265 - Paul Micau, b. 1658; d. 1736, was a French Physician and a Huguenot. He was born in Nantes, France; came to America and settled in Essex County, Va., on the Rappahannock River. He had spent many years in exile in England.

Vol. 8, p. 163 - The Huguenot refugees were exempted from taxes for 7 years.

Robert Beverly's history and account of the refugees in 1705 stated that the 10,000 acres of land set aside in Henrico Co. for the refugees were entirely on the south side of the James River. Goochland Co. was formed from this in 1727, and included all of the present counties of Cumberland and Powhatan. Chesterfield Co. was formed from a part of Henrico in 1749. In 1748 Cumberland was formed from Goochland and a part of what is now Buckingham Co., and included what is now Powhatan.

Robert Beverly's history further states that the French Huguenots were naturalized by a Special law for that purpose.

The age of Tithables was given as all male persons of the age of 16 yrs, and upward, and all Negro, mulatto, and Indian women of 16 yrs. and up and not free.

The Marquis De La Muce in 1700 led more than 500 French Huguenots to America and settled in Virginia. Most of these settled in Manakintawn, but some settled around Jamestown, others near Norfolk, and others in Surry County.

Huguenots had settled on the Neuse and Pamlico Rivers in North Carolina, but most of these were wiped out by the Indian uprising of 1711-12. Others lost their lives in a Yellow fever.
epidemic. Many who survived returned to Virginia from whence they originally had come.

p. 172 - Some Manakin families gradually moved on down through North Carolina to the Santee region of South Carolina.

Vol. 11, p. 68 - Some French Huguenots settled in Stafford County between the Rappahannock and Potomac Rivers before 1700.

Vol. 18, p. 115 - The DeLamar family came first to Maryland, then into Virginia. This Huguenot family now is known as the Lamar family

Vol. 19, p. 119 - "English Duplicates of Lost Virginia Records" A List of French Refugees as compiled by Des Cognets for the years 1700 and 1701/2. (Only a few are given below):

Pierre Perrat & his vrife. (Comment: Pierre Perut was shown on list of Tithers in the household of Jean Dupre for the years 1724, 1725, & 1726).

Loys du Pyn. (Comment: This name does not appear again in any records found to date. It is wondered if this was the Louis DuPre who later is found in records of Isle of Wight County.)

Jean Pepuy. (Comment: This is believed to be Jean DuPre of whom there are records in King William parish, This last name is spelled "Pepuy" in another account, so it is possible that it was very difficult to read).

This list of passengers referred to above arrived in Virginia on the ship "Mary & Ann", July 31, 1700.

There is an excellent hand-written auto-biography of JAMES D. EASLEY, SR., of South Carolina, in the State Archives of Virginia, Richmond, entitled, "Memoirs of James D. Easley, Sr.". The Archives file number is 24647. This auto-biography gives an account of his parents and grand-parents, born in Virginia in the 1700s. He had brothers Warham, Thomas, and Robert, indicating that he was a descendant of Robert Easley (wife Ann) who died 1711, Henric a C a., Va. A daughter of the latter couple, Margaret Easley, married Thomas Dupray who died ca 1725 Henrico Co. She later married James Watson. (See Vol. I, DuPre Trail).

Deposition No. 1 establishes that the death of Lewis Dupree, Sr., of Greensville Co., Va., occurred prior to Oct. 23, 1804. (He disappears from the Tax Lists after the 1798 listing). While these documents do not specifically state that he is deceased, it must be presumed that had he been alive he could have settled the question of ownership of the Negro Abram, making a suit in Court unnecessary. In the case of James Horton against James Dupree (see p. 573 we find that this case was established already by 2 May 1808 and possibly before. It could not have been instituted before the death of Lewis Dupree, Sr., as his being deceased was a factor in the case. Note the Court's question on 28 Oct. 1811, "In whom was the title of the Negro Stephen at the death of Lewis Dupree?"

The case of James Horton against Jesse Dupree re ownership of the Negro Abram establishes that Dolly Dupree, the grand-daughter of Lewis Dupree, Sr., was the illegitimate daughter of Rebecca Dupree, and not the daughter of her brother, James Dupree, and his wife named Dolly.

The family to which Jesse Dupree belonged has not been proven, although from a number of records, including the case above, the inference is rather clear that he was a son of Lewis Dupree, Sr., and brother of Rebecca Horton, Elizabeth Gregory, Jeremiah, James, Reid, and Cordall Dupree.

Ex parte
This case coming on to (be) heard on the petition and report of the Master (of the Crt), the Court declares its opinion to be that made- Madison Dupree is unable to educate the petitioner his son in the manner suitable to his degree and just expectations in life, and that it is expedient that he should be educated out of his own income, which appears to the Court to be amply sufficient for that purpose, the Court therefore allows and directs his guardian Whitmel H. Anthony to educate him in a liberal manner and to put him to schools fitting and becoming his age, advancement in learning and capacity- and for this purpose the said guardian to appropriate annually, if needed, the sum of $300. (Guardian to furnish financial report annually to the Court, etc.).

Ref: The Cape Fear (Rivers of America), by Malcolm Ross, 1965:

Mr. Ross states that the "Goose Creek Faction" of South Carolina, after up-setting the proprietary government, moved on to the Lower Cape Fear. Their leaders were the Moores, whose ancestor was Roger Moore, a descendant of Irish kings and leader of an Irish Rebellion at the time of the Roundhead wars. James Moore, Roger's son, was the first of the Moores to come to the Charleston Colony. He married Sir John Yeaman's step-daughter, Margaret Berringer. Of their nine children, James, Jr., Maurice, Roger, and Nathaniel pioneered in the Cape Fear region; spear-headed the settlement after the pirates were banished about 1725. Maurice actually was the one who planned the settlement. His first wife was the widow of Col. Samuel Swann, and daughter of Major Alexander Lillington. Maurice Moore's second wife was a Porter. - Brunswick, N. C., was planned by Maurice in 1726.
Orton Plantation, just north of Brunswick, was owned by Roger Moore,
He built the beautiful house there that still stands, and with its gardens has become a sight-seeing attraction.

It is thought by some that the DuPres (Duprees) of the Cape Fear Region came from Virginia. The information above has been given to show that it is more than likely they came from the Charleston region than from Virginia, admitting that the latter was possible.

No record was found showing the disposition of this property. - This Lewis Dupree (Duepree) no doubt was the father of Daniel and Drury, It could not have been Drury's son, as Drury had not been married but fifteen years
(p. 16), nor could it have been Daniel's and Drury's brother, Lewis Jarrell Dupree, who was in Oglethorpe Co., Ga., in 1803, 1805, 1806, and 1807. (See Deeds, Oglethorpe Co. herein). - This inventory was undated; however, it is recorded in Will Bk. A-1 immediately before a record dated Feb. 18, 1799·

Witnesses: Thos. L. Dart (Dower release p. 120). John Bowie (?)

Note: This Deed will correct the erroneous thinking of some that Benjamin D. DuPre' of this District was Benjamin Donaldson Dupree, a descendant of the Virginia Duprees. Benjamin and his son, Benjamin David DuPre', were directly descended from Josias DuPre of the Charleston area.

DEATH OF JEREMIAH DUPREE OF GA.: Died in Houston Co. Ga., on the 8th
inst., in his 84th year, Jeremiah Dupree. He was born in Brunswick Co., Va., Nov. 16, 1754, and was a descendant of the Huguenots. At the age of 16 he entered the Revolutionary War and was severely wounded by a cannon ball at Guilford Courthouse, N. C. He was also at Yorktown and witnessed the surrender of Lord Cornwallis. At the close of the war he retired to his residence in Virginia. In 1786 he joined the Methodist Church. In his youth he was a playmate of the venerated Bishop McKendree.
In the year 1791 he came south and settled in Washington Co., Ga. In 1808
he moved to Twiggs Co., on the then Indian frontier, and in 1826 he moved to Houston County, Ga. He leaves 75 children and grandchildren.

arrived in January 1791. He lived there a short while before removing to Washington Co., Ga., and from thence to Wilkinson vein.

his name as shown above, but omitting the "J". Only the signature to the second letter shows the "J".

The first letter was written on letter-head stationery captioned, struck through, and the letter was headed Clinton, Mississippi".

To the Librarian

When I was last in Richmond Mrs D'r Geo. W. Bagby filled the office to which you have been assigned. I had met her at her house in Richmond. Her husband & I were associated for a time as Journalists in the "Old Whig" office, "bello flagrantion" in Richmond. I hope she still serves the State & will be kind enough to answer the questions I propound.

With great respect I am yrs very truly

The second letter was typewritten, double spaced, on legal size paper.

(2) Clinton, Mississippi April 6th 1891

Dear Mrs Bagby:

My acquaintance and friendly relations with Dr. Bagby began even in my boyhood. He and I and the late Sunset Cox of glorious memory "et in Washington at Buchanan's inauguration. I remained some weeks in the Fed. capital while whe (sie) Dr. was there only a day or two. But we never forgot the accident and good fortune involved in this day spent so joyously with the most brilliant youth, as Mr. Cox was then esteemed, of his time. But he and Tom Corwin were inveterate jesters as matchless orators and I had the good fortune to hear Corwin tell my late father-in-law, James C. Jones that if he had never "cracked a jode he would have been President."

Then again, in 1863 when for a time I was Clerk of a Com. on Military affairs of the Confed. Congress, I made Dr. Bagby's my office which was that of Mr, Moseley Ed, of the Old Richmond Whig. Do you remember Mr. Moseley? What a frank, confiding, generous old gentleman he was! I was introduced to him by Dr. B. as a "newspaper man". An hour later Mr. Moseley was summoned to the country. I was still in in Dr. B 's "telegraph" apartment. He approached me saying, "you have been reading the Whig and know what it advocates and opposes". " want you to run it for me till I return,. Do you know that I will be more boastful of this trust reposed and of the fidility (sie) and skill. With which I executed it than of laudation conceded by the Dep't of State when I served it in an international embroglio By the way, Mr. Moseley --and. Gov. Jones were singularly alike in person, stature - singularly tall and slendor -- and their photographs were fac similes. Jones was born at the Hermitage in Tenn. but his father and mother were Virginians as are these all of people that get to heaven I humbly imagine - when writing to a loyal Virginienne And this leads me to inquire whether, in delveng (sie) among old books or pamphlets which I exploited somewhat when I was Committee clerk, as aforesaid State Library, you ever encountered any allusion to persons of:--- name grandfather, Dan'l DuPre was, in his youth, a soldier under LaFayette to be 90 years old dying, in 1848, in Lexington Va. I used to hear and see the
the old gentleman when he was "fighting all his battles o'er again". The old man never loved Gee. Washington, He said that he and and LaFayette starved out (p. 2) Cornwallis and finally cooped him up in Yorktown. Then came DeGresse and Hochambeau, and when the French, under LaFayette, an land, and under De-Grease, at sea, had won the victory, "the good and great G. W. hustled down from Tappul were (sie) he had been hanging poor Andre far six or 8 months, and nod-estly received Cornwallis' sword reporting to Congress a greet Victory for she Country, s paternal ancestor, so-called.

Many thanks, Mrs Bagby, for answers to to those historical and other questions propounded The others, unanswered are immaterial.

It occurs to me at the moment, that I have a letter from Hon. Henry L. Bentley of Abeline Texas - the matchless orator of those parts - inquiring about the history and deeds of my grandfather. Bentley's grandfather was also named Dan'l DuPre. He was forty years Pres't and Cashier of the state Bank Of N. C. at Raleigh. He and my grandfather (sie), I opine, were first cousins. Their father or grandfather came, with senator Bayard's people, to Phil'a about 1670. That's all I know about them. My great grandfather owned this site of the present town of Manchester your Richmond suburb. He sold 99 year leases, These expired about thirty years ago. Christian and Carrington were employed by the heirs of this old Dan'l DuPre, my grandfather, to sue for the property. All records had been burned twice or thrice. We could prove nothing, and the legislature of Va properly legislatd to quiet titles and very properly I was suppressed. However I am pleased to tell you that I am the hereditary owner of much realty about Richmond. The additional fact remains to be stated that my mother's name was Francine Bolling Cox and this fact induced me to seek the acquaintance of Sunset Cox, as heretofore stated. Two of my' mother's uncles were in the battle at Monmouth Court House, N. J. One was wounded and remained in the (sie) State and was married there. I fancied that Sunset Cox (born in N.J.) might be my cousin. I mentioned the matter once. He only laughed at the odd conceit saying "I always knew that I was of royal blood." My mother's mother eras named Cabinesse.; her grandfather was John Cox to whom the Crown issued a grant on parchment from King Charles, I think it was, conveying to "John Cox Gent". the County of Dinwiddie. My father's home was destroyed bello flagrante with every old book and heirloom of the house. I wish to answer Mr. Bentley's letter. Before doing so I would gladly hear from you. There is something in that old Library about every old family of the old Dominion. I am, with sincere regard,
Yrs sincerely
Louis J. DuPre'

On the reverse of the last page of the above letter was the following in long-hand:

You had an admirable portrait of Henry Clay & I have his watch. Don't you remember the conversation evoked by these facts at your home?

(Also) Gov. 6( U. S. Senator James C. Jones was named James "Chamberlayne" Jones. See what is said of him within.

The picture of Louis J. DuPre referred to earlier is of a fine looking, bearded man, somewhat past middle-age It is regretted that it cannot be reproduced herein.
Letter No. 2 is valuable for the family information it gives, most of which can be taken as fact. However, it should be evaluated carefully as to what is fact and what could be the failing but fantastic memory of an old man, with perhaps a slender thread of truth with which he embroidered it, unconsciously, as the years passed. No reflection upon him - just one of the vagaries of old age. There is no doubt that he knew who his parents and grandparents were; however, his supposition that Daniel DuPre, Cashier of the State Bank, Raleigh, N. C., for 40 years, and his own grandfather who died in Lexington, Ga., were cousins is certainly open to question. He stated that his great grandfather owned the site of the present town of Manchester, suburb of Richmond, Va. This is in error according to facts, as his great grandfather was Lewis Deupree, son of Thomas Deupree of Lunenburg Co., Va. These relationships are proven conclusively elsewhere herein. Thomas Deupree's father also was Thomas who married Margaret Easley. The latter Thomas did die in Henrico Co., Va., ca. 1725, but there is great doubt that he ever owned more than a small grant (Patent) of land. His wife inherited 150 acres in Henrico Co. from her father, Robert Easley. It's possible that some of the acreage owned by either could have come down to their son, Thomas of Lunenburg Co; however, there are no Henrico records to support this. Lewis, the father of Daniel, sold his holdings in Lunenburg and Mecklenburg Counties in the early 1790s and removed to Laurens Co., S. C., where he died ca. 1799. This was Louis J. DuPre's great-grandfather. He must have disposed of most of his property before death, as the inventory of his estate, filed by his son, Drury the administrator, showed a modest amount of property. - Some interested descendant might learn much about the early ancestry of this family by delving into the Court records of Henrico Co. I suggest that sane information might be found under "Land Causes".

Old letters can be a treasury of information; however, take the "leads" they give and prove them.

DEATH OF JEREMIAH DUPREE OF GA.: Died in Houston Co. Ga., on the 8th
inst., in his 84th year, Jeremiah Dupree. He was born in Brunswick Co., Va., Nov. 16, 1754, and was a descendant of the Huguenot's. At the age of 16 he entered the Revolutionary War and was severely wounded by a cannon ball at Guilford Courthouse, N. C. He was also at Yorktown and witnessed the surrender of Lord Cornwallis. At the close of the war he retired to his residence in Virginia. In 1786 he joined the Methodist Church. In his youth he was a playmate of the venerated Bishop McKendree.
In the year 1791 he came south and settled in Washington Co., Ga. In 1808
he moved to Twiggs Co., on the then Indian frontier, and in 1826 he moved to Houston County, Ga. He leaves 75 children and grandchildren.
Signed: Thomas Spaight.

JEREMIAH DUPREE - Pension Record, No. H 31-55 (National Archives, Washington D, C, Jeremiah Dupree stated in his application that he was born Nov. 16, 1754 in Brunswick Co., Va. He served in the Revolutioary War and fought at Guilford Court House. After the War he returned to Brunswick Co. (afterwards in the Greensville Co. area), which he left Nov. 29, 1790, moving to Burke Co., Ga., where he arrived in January 1791. He lived there a short while before removing to Washington Co., Ga., and from thence to Wilkinson Co., in the part that later become Twiggs Co. Still later, he removed to Houston Co., Ga. He mentioned a brother, Cordell Dupree. - The Pension file shows that he married Elinor Huff of Brunswick Co., Va. Jeremiah and his wife died in Houston County, Ga.

The Pension file referred to above contains the following names and dates, with no explanation: (Partly illegible)

(Note: An explanation of the above names might be that Jesse Dupree and Polly Johnson were two of Jeremiah Dupree's children, and that these are the records of their families. The dates are suggestive of this. Jeremiah had other children, but no papers concerning them were found in the file.)

I have previous to the year 1846, given to each of my children, property & money to the amount of three thousand dollars. During the year

To each of my sons, Daniel & Elijah, property to the value of $1600.50. John Starnes was unwilling to receive said property upon this condition, and the final arrangement was for Starnes to take property to the value of $1000.00 for which he gave his note payable to myself or my legal representative, twelve months after the death of my said daughter, Elizabeth, and I gave to four of the children of my said daughter Elizabeth, by her first husband Rainey, each in cash, the sum of $100.32 and hold now in my hands for the other child of my said daughter, Elizabeth Decatur Rainey, the sum of $139.00. .... hereby give to the children of my said daughter, Elizabeth by her first husband, Josiah Rainey, the aforesaid note of $1000.00 or the proceeds of the same .... etc. .......the widow of my son, William E. The two letters below were copied from a manuscript file at the Virginia Historical Society Library, 428 N. Boulevard, Richmond, Va., File Classification: Mss 1 B 1463B 5514-5765. Box 23 of 197, THE BAGBY FAMILY PAPERS, Section 46 (DU-GIB). The letters were written by LOUIS J. DUPRE' Clinton, Miss., to the wife of GEORGE W. BAGBY and to the Virginia State Library, respectively, both of Richmond, Va. (Letters inadvertently reversed below).

Note: George William Bagby (1828-1883) was Publisher of the Lynchburg Express; wrote for Harper's New Monthly Magazine; was Editor of the Southern Literary Messenger; and was an author and a lecturer, generally in the light vein.

The first letter was written on letter-head stationery captioned, "EDITORIAL ROOMS DAILY NEWS, Birmingham, Ala." Birmingham, Ala., had been struck through, and the letter was headed Clinton, Mississippi.

To the Librarian

When I was last in Richmond Mrs Dr Geo. W. Bagby filled the office to which you have been assigned. I had met her at her house in Richmond. Her husband & I were associated for a time as Journalists in the "Old Whig" office, "bello flagrantion" in Richmond. I hope she still serves the State & will be kind enough to answer the questions I propound.

With great respect I am yrs very truly

The second letter was typewritten, double spaced, on legal size paper.

(2) Clinton, Mississippi April 6th 1891

Dear Mrs Bagby;

My acquaintance and friendly relations with Dr. Bagby began even in my boyhood. He and I and the late Sunset Cox of glorious memory "et in Washington at Buchanan's inauguration. I remained some weeks in the Fed. capital while whe (sie) Dr. was there only a day or two. But we never forgot the accident and good fortune involved in this day spent so joyously with the most brilliant youth, as Mr. Cox was then esteemed, of his time. But he and Tom Corwin were inveterate jesters as matchless orators and I had the good fortune to hear Corwin tell my late father-in-law, James C. Jones that if he had never "cracked a jode he would have been President."

Then again, in 1863 when for a time I was Clerk of a Com. on Military affairs of the Confed. Congress, I made Dr. Bagby's my office which was that of Mr. Moseley Ed, of the Old Richmond Whig. Do you remember Mr. Moseley? What a frank, confiding, generous old gentleman he was! I was introduced to him by Dr. B. as a "newspaper man". An hour later Mr. Moseley was summoned to the country. I was still in in Dr. B's "telegraph" apartment. He approached me saying, "you have been reading the Whig and know what it advocates and opposes". " want you to run it for me till I return". Do you know that I will be more boastful of this trust reposed and of the fidlity (sie) and skill. With which I executed it than of laudation conceded by the Dep't of State when I served it in an international embroglio By the way, Mr. Moseley --and. Gov. Jones were singularly alike in person, stature - singularly tall and slender -- and their photographs were fac similes. Jones was born at the Hermitage in Tenn. but his father and mother were Virginians as are these all of people that get to heaven I humbly imagine - when writing to a loyal Virginenne And this leads me to inquire whether, in delving (sie) among old books or pamphlets which I exploited somewhat when I was Committee clerk, as aforesaid State Library, you ever encountered any allusion to persons of:--- name grandfather; Dan'l DuPre was, in his youth, a soldier under LaFayette to be 90 years old dying, in 1848, in Lexington Va. I used to hear and see the the old gentleman when he was "fighting all his battles o'er again". The old man never loved Gee. Washington, He said that he and LaFayette starved out (p. 2) Cornwallis and finally cooped him up in Yorktown. Then came DeGresse and Hochambeau, and when the French, under LaFayette, an land, and under De-Grease, at sea, had won the victory, "the good and great G. W. hustled down from Tappul were (sie) he had been hanging poor Andre far six or 8 months, and nodestly received Cornwallis' sword reporting to Congress a greet Victory for she Country,s paternal ancestor, so-called.

Many thanks, Mrs Bagby, for answers to to those historical and other questions propounded The others, unanswered are immaterial.

It occurs to me at the moment, that I have a letter from Hon. Henry L. Bentley of Abeline Texas - the matchless orator of those parts - inquiring about the history and deeds of my grandfather. Bentley's grandfather was also named Dan'l DuPre. He was forty years Pres't and Cashier of the state Bank Of N. C. at Raleigh. He and my grandfather (sie), I opine, were first cousins. Their father or grandfather came, with senator Bayard's people, to Phil'a about 1670. That's all I know about them. My great grandfather owned the site of the present town of Manchester your Richmond suburb. He sold 99 year leases, These expired about thirty years ago. Christian and Carrington were employed by the heirs of this old Dan'l DuPre, my grandfather, to sue for the property. All records had been burned twice or thrice. We could prove nothing, and the legislature of Va properly legislatd to quiet titles and very properly I was suppressed. However I am pleased to tell you that I am the hereditary owner of much realty about Richmond. The additional fact remains to be stated that my mother's name was Francine Bolling Cox and this fact induced me to seek the acquaintance of Sunset Cox, as heretofore stated. Two of my' mother's uncles were in the battle at Monmouth Court House, N. J. One was wounded and remained in the state and was married there. I fancied that Sunset Cox (barn in N.J.) might be my cousin. I mentioned the matter once. He only laughed at the odd conceit saying "I always knew that I was of royal blood." My mother's mother eras named Cabinesse.; her grandfather was John Cox to whom the Crown issued a grant on parchment from King Charles, I think it was, conveying to "John Cox Gent". the County of Dinwiddie. My father's home was destroyed bello flagrante with every old book and heirloom of the house. I wish to answer Mr. Bentley's letter. Before doing so I would gladly hear from you. There is something in that old Library about every old family of the old Dominion. I am, with sincere regard,
Yrs sincerely
Louis J. DuPre'
On the reverse of the last page of the above letter was the following in long-hand:
You had an admirable portrait of Henry Clay & I have his watch. Don't you remember the conversation evoked by these facts at your home?

(Also) Gov. 6( U. S. Senator James C. Jones was named James "Chamberlayne" Jones. See what is said of him within.

The picture of Louis J. DuPre referred to earlier is of a fine looking, bearded man, somewhat past middle-age It is regretted that it cannot be reproduced herein.

Letter No. 2 is valuable for the family information it gives, most of which can be taken as fact. However, it should be evaluated carefully as to what is fact and what could be the failing but fantastic memory of an old man, with perhaps a slender thread of truth with which he embroidered it, unconsciously, as the years passed. No reflection upon him - just one of the vagaries of old age. There is no doubt that he knew who his parents and grandparents were; however, his supposition that Daniel DuPre, Cashier of the State Bank, Raleigh, N. C., for 40 years, and his own grandfather who died in Lexington, Ga., were cousins is certainly open to question. He stated that his great grandfather owned the site of the present town of Manchester, suburb of Richmond, Va. This is in error according to facts, as his great grandfather was Lewis Deupree, son of Thomas Deupree of Lunenburg Co., Va. These relationships are proven conclusively elsewhere herein.

Thomas Deupree's father also was Thomas who married Margaret Easley. The latter Thomas did die in Henrico Co., Va., ca. 1725, but there is great doubt that he ever owned more than a small grant (Patent) of land. His wife inherited 150 acres in Henrico Co. from her father, Robert Easley. It's possible that some of the acreage owned by either could have come down to their son, Thomas of Lunenburg Co; however, there are no Henrico records to support this. Lewis, the father of Daniel, sold his holdings in Lunenburg and Mecklenburg Counties in the early 1790s and removed to Laurens Co., S. C., where he died ca. 1799. This was Louis J. DuPre's greatgrandfather. He must have disposed of most of his property before death, as the inventory of his estate, filed by his son, Drury the administrator, showed a modest amount of property. - Some interested descendant might learn much about the early ancestry of this family by delving into the Court records of Henrico Co. I suggest that sane information might be found under "Land Causes".

Old letters can be a treasury of information; however, take the "leads" they give and prove them.

STEWART COUNTY - Will Bk. B, 1850-1890, pp. 186, 187:
Will of Priscilla R. Mathis, of Stewart Co., State of Georgia, dated 13th September 1861:

I desire and direct that all my estate both real and personal, including Mary and her increase, be equally divided into eight shares, which shares I give and bequeath in manner following, to wit, to my son William R. Mathis one share, absolutely, and without reserve forever; to my daughter Mary R. Tucker, wife of John R. Tucker; Eliza A. Robinson, wife of Neil Robinson; Elizabeth H. Gilmore, wife of James H. Gilmore; Sarah C. Burkes, wife of William Burkes; Caroline Scott a widow; and Clarissa B. Dunnaway, wife of John B. Dunnaway, each one share; to have, use and enjoy, for and during her natural life, free from the debts and liabilities of her present or any future husband, and at her decease to remain to her children forever, and also one share to the children of my deceased daughter Rebecca T. Dunnaway, to wit, Sarah P. James L. and John Dunnaway, to be equally divided among them; the portion going to Sarah P. to be a separate life estate free from the marital rights, and remainder to her children.

I hereby appoint for each of my daughters that are now married her husband as trustee of the property going to her, and in the event that the husband of either of my daughters should die, she shall have the right to select her trustee. And should either of my daughters die before me, the right to the share going to her shall rest in her children forever. I also appoint my son William R. Mathis, trustee of the property going to Caroline Scott, and John B. Dunnaway, trustee of the property going to Sarah P. Dunnaway. Fourthly-

Whereas my brother Jesse Dupree, did in his life time, on the twenty fifth day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and forty two, by his deed of gift and act, deliver to me a certain negro girl named Mary, and whereas in an instrument purporting to be his last will and testament, the names of my son William R. Mathis and my daughter Clarissa B. Dunnaway, are stricken from any interest in remainder, after my life interest shall be over, to the said negro woman Mary and her increase. Now to prevent legal strife and litigation I desire and direct that the said Divisors of my estate, shall make out of my other property, two shares, each being equal to one eighth part of my estate, including Mary and her increase, and allot them, one to my son William R. and the other to my daughter Clarissa B. Dunnaway, in line of such share as might fall to them by a general and indiscriminate allotment or distribution, so as to equalize the shares of all my children. The right to rest as herein before directed in the third article. Provided, however that if my other children shall relinquish any right or claim under the will of Jesse Dupree, touching Mary and children, then the division of my estate shall be indiscriminate.

Fifthly- The husband of my daughters, living, and of the county of Stewart, may as trustees herein before appointed sell any negro or other property falling to their wives, provided they shall deem it to be for the advantage of the ( ) or to avoid parting families.

Sixthly- I hereby nominate and appoint my son William R. Mathis executor of this my last will and testament, this 13th day of September 1861.

Note: It was customary to charge a fee when registering for a drawing in the Georgia Lotteries. A lucky drawer would then have to pay a Grant fee if he took up the land he drew. Many did not take up their Lottery land, although many did. The State Department of Archives and History, located at 330 Capital Avenue, S. W., Atlanta, Ga. 30334, can furnish information as to whether or not certain Lottery Grants were taken up.

The following item was contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamar DeuPree, of Dallas, Texas. The article was contained in a small pamphlet which was forwarded to Mr. DeuPree. On the face of the pamphlet was:
FORWARDED AS OF INTEREST
John F. Ryan
Committee on Public Affairs of the American Petroleum Institute
1271 Avenue of the Americas. New York, N. Y. 10020 Following the above was the picture of an old church, under which was this description:
MOSTLY A MEMORY - The only remains of the historic and once influential Sharon Baptist Church in Noxubee County are a few graying tombstones and timbers used to build the Pilgrim's Rest Baptist Church in the background. The Sharon Church existed from 1846 to 1915. Photo by Broox Sledge.
Inside the pamphlet is the following article about the old church, written by Broox Sledge, Macon, Miss:

A faded minute book, a few timbers forming part of another structure, and some graying tombstones are all that remain of the simple grandeur of one of the most historic and influential churches ever to exist in Noxubee county.
The Sharon Baptist Church was a vital part of the Deerbrook area east of Brooksville from its organization in 1846 until its dissolution in 1915.
The old minute book is the property of Mrs. William Deupree of Memphis.
The remaining timbers form the foundation and support structure for the present-day Pilgrim's Rest Colored Baptist Church in approximately the same location as the one-time site of the Sharon church.
The graying tombstones remain in the old Sharon cemetery which holds not only the remains of some of the county's finest early influential religious personages but also the bones of four victims of a murder orgy unequalled in Noxubee county's lore of the past.

FIRST MEMBERS
The Sharon Baptist Church was organized Oct. 31, 1846. The church named as its first deacons Daniel and Elijah Deupree, with William Cunningham named church clerk, and William Manning the first pastor.
It is not (c)lear why the names of Daniel and Elijah Deupree were not on the list of founding members. (The names of their slaves were.)
They were listed in the minutes as being present at the meeting to consider the organization of the church. Possibly they were already members of another church and did not leave to join Sharon until all details were complete and the church actually an organized body.
This mystery is also true and Jared D. Brooks, who became one of the church’s outstanding members and the man for whom the town of Brooksville was named.

GROWTHS AND PROBLEMS Successive entries in the old minute book reveal the growth - and the problems - of the newly-formed church.
Jared D. Brooks had his troubles from time to time with the church.
In July 1850 an entry stated: "J. D. Brooks wrote the church a letter telling of trespassing on rules in a fight with Mr. Winkfield Said he would apologize but already had done it so many times, the church probably wouldn't let him do it." The church took no action against him in this instance.
An entry in January 1854 read: "J. D. Brooks excluded from the church for acting as a second in a duel between Dr. Irby and Dr. Fant, a duel in which Dr. Kirby was killed. " The church then went on to condemn duelling in no uncertain terms.
There are varying estimates as to just when the first Sunday School was organized. Certainly the Sunday School organized at the Sharon Church in January 1847 was the first in Noxubee County, quite possibly the first in the state. Another Sunday School was organized by the church in 1866 for freed-men, but soon the freedmen began requesting and receiving transfers to their own African Church.
The last entry in the old minute book was dated June 1873 and concerned Bro. A. Blewitt and J. W. Deupree being appointed to look into the possibility of having Bro. George Wharton to preach for the church.
A special tribute was paid Jared D. Brooks in the minutes after his death on April 2, 1863. He was serving as Noxubee county state representative at his death.
The tribute in the minute book said he was "honest and honorable...
....had integrity of character ...and was independent in opinion and fearless in the expounding of same." His tomb has never been found.
Surmise is that his remains are resting either in the Sharon, Deerbrook, or Brooksville burial grounds, but no stone with his inscription on it has ever been brought to light.
Shortly before 1900 the church was moved about three miles east to Deerbrook and built upon ground donated by Latt Deupree. Some of the church leaders of that time and shortly thereafter were Wayne Deupree, Capt. Snowden, the Robertsons, the Clays, Harrisons, Cavetts, Bells, and other members of the Deupree family.

Shortly after 1920 the building was sold and torn down with the money going to the Brooksville Baptist Church. Some of the timbers were used in the building of the Pilgrim's Rest Colored Baptist Church on the old site next to the cemetery. Thus an era passes.

There is an unpublished manuscript in the records of the Noxubee County Historical Society concerning the Deupree family entitled "Historical Notes of Noxubee County, Mississippi" collected and written by John Anderson Tyson in 19 26-19 27. Chapter XII, "Some Distinguished Citizens of Noxubee County", contains some genealogy of the Deupree family, a copy of which was graciously sent to this researcher by Dr. Allen Dupree King, Wilmington, Delaware. The following information was obtained from this genealogy. Although no references were given for the data and therefore is unproven by this researcher, it will prove of value in further research on this family:

Daniel Deupree settled first east of the Tombigbee River in Pickens Co. (Miss.). He purchased a large tract of land and built a handsome residence now known as the "Tucker Madison Place", although the original house was burned. Daniel moved to Macon after his home burned, and built the house now owned by A. T. Dent.

Drewy Deupree, cousin of Daniel and Elijah Deupree, came from Georgia and managed the farms.

Daniel and Elijah Deupree's widowed sister, Mrs. William Deupree, lived first in Pickens Co. and later moved near Daniel.

Daniel Deupree had six sons and four daughters.

Elijah Deupree had five sons.

Their cousin, Drewy Deupree had five sons.

The widow Deupree had four sons and one daughter, & one grand-daughter. Later, Drewy Deupree and all his sons returned to Georgia to live.

The widow Deupree died, and her descendants removed to Texas.

Two of Daniel Deupree's sons died before 1861. One of his sons, Col. Louis Deupree, was a voluntary aide to Gen. B. Bate. After the War Between the States, Louis was engaged in journalistic work in Memphis, Tenn. He also was a U. S. Consul to Honduras. (Note: See two of Louis's letters herein under Oglethorpe Co., Ga.).

Daniel Deupree's other three sons, Dr. Thomas Deupree, Doe Deupree, and John Greer Deupree were Confederate soldiers. James Wayne Deupree entered service as a volunteer when he was 36 years of age. He finished his education at Howard College, Marion, Alabama. He inherited the old Dupree place from his father, to which he took his bride, Della Bush. He took charge of Deerbrook Academy as Institute Conductor, and was considered one of the best in the state by the State Superintendent.
